

Informations about the hotels

Sol Pelicano

Photo taken (April 2004) in the aerotaxi flight going to Isla de la Juventud.

★★★★ Sol Pelicano

The Sol Pelicano which used to be a Gran Caribe hotel is now a Sol Melia hotel since its reopening in December 2002. It has been entirely renovated. The rooms are distributed in several two or three-story units, colonial architecture. The rooms are either with an ocean, pool, or garden view. The beach in front of this hotel is generally the most stable of Playa Lindamar.

- Number of rooms: 307
(Distributed in 18 bungalows of 8, 12 and 31 rooms)
 - 12 junior suites available ($)
 - 3 especially adapted for the handicapped people
-
- Standard room : Air conditioning, 2 single beds or 1 queen bed, complete bathroom, 220 volt, balcony or terrace, telephone, television, mini-fridge, safety deposit box, hair dryer.
-
- Facilities : Buffet restaurant (breakfast, lunch, dinner), A la carte restaurant (international cuisine, dinner only), Grill-restaurant on the beach (mixed grill at lunch time, "a la carte" Creole cuisine at dinner time), pool bar, lobby bar (24/24h), pool, kiddie pool, tennis, water sports club, shops (souvenirs, cigars, rum), medical service($), massage($), money exchange, Fax ($), tourist desk, car & scooter rental, mini-club, babysitting, lounge chairs, beach towel , beach umbrellas (palapas), shuttle service.
Please note there is no gym at the Sol Pelicano hotel.