

Hotel Habana Libre

Hotel Tryp Habana Libre  Description

The Capital's most symbolic hotel, the Tryp Habana Libre stands on a privileged location right at the center of El Vedado, very close to the bicentennial University of Havana and the mythical Malecón, just a few steps from the popular ice-cream parlor Coppelia, from several ministries and institutions and from the Havana Rampa. The twenty-five-story hotel rises majestically and offers an incomparably charming view of important places in the Old Havana, the bay and the sea.

At the Tryp Habana Libre, you will find a wide variety of services and attractions that go from its rooms overlooking sea and the city; its four thematic restaurants and bars; a wide rooms rigged with state-of-the-art equipment for functions, congresses and conventions; and the renowned Cabaret "Turquino," every day presenting a unique night of delirium with its show by the light of the moon and the twinkle of the stars.

Let the magic of this city get you and you will always yearn to return to the Capital of the largest Caribbean island.
